

Corporate Accountability in Palestine: Grassroots Strategies

By: Omar Barghouti, Nadim Bawalsa · January, 2023

In recent years, Palestine solidarity activists have pressured corporations to end their complicity in the Israeli regime's violations of Palestinians' rights. As a result, companies like Ben & Jerry's, Veolia, and Pillsbury, among others, have pulled their products and services from Israeli markets, albeit to varying extents. How, exactly, have these successes been achieved? What are some of their limitations, and how hopeful should we be for a proliferation in corporate boycotts of Israel?

To answer these questions and more, host Nadim Bawalsa was joined by Sandra Tamari and Omar Barghouti for Al-Shabaka's first policy lab of 2023.
