

POLICY LAB

Hamas and the Dilemma of Leadership and Resistance

By: Jihad Abusalim, Belal Shobaki, Nadim Bawalsa · September, 2021

Since the Unity Intifada in May 2021, Hamas has achieved an unprecedented level of popularity and support among the Palestinian people for its resistance in the face of the Israeli regime's attacks on Palestinians in East Jerusalem.

Still, the movement continues to struggle between reconciling its leadership and governance on the one hand, and its nature as a resistance movement on the other. How has Hamas's gradual rise to political power since 2005/06 affected the movement's ideological foundations? How did the isolation of Hamas in Gaza determine its global image, and thus its relationship with the Palestinian national struggle? What can we expect from the movement?

This policy lab is only available in Arabic, and may be viewed here.

Al-Shabaka: The Palestinian Policy Network, is an independent, non-profit organization. Al-Shabaka convenes a multidisciplinary, global network of Palestinian analysts to produce critical policy analysis and collectively imagine a new policymaking paradigm for Palestine and Palestinians worldwide.

Al-Shabaka materials may be circulated with due attribution to Al-Shabaka: The Palestinian Policy Network.

The opinion of individual members of Al-Shabaka's policy network do not necessarily reflect the views of the organization as a whole.