POLICY LAB | POLITICS

The Unity Intifada: Any Role for the PLO?

By: Zaha Hassan, Nadia Hijab, Nadim Bawalsa · July, 2021

The visible absence of the Palestinian Liberation Organization from the ongoing Unity Intifada has led many to question the organization's legitimacy and relevance. Do Palestinians still need the PLO? If so, why?

These questions come as Al-Shabaka publishes a critical study, "Reviving a Palestinian Power: The Diaspora and the Diplomatic Corps," conducted by analysts Nadia Hijab, Zaha Hassan, Inès Abdel Razek and Mona Younis. Through in-depth analysis and exclusive interviews with members of the PLO and its diplomatic corps across the world, the authors reveal significant realities about the organization and its future.

Join guests Nadia Hijab, and Zaha Hassan alongside host Nadim Bawalsa as they engage these questions and more in this policy lab.

Al-Shabaka: The Palestinian Policy Network, is an independent, non-profit organization. Al-Shabaka convenes a multidisciplinary, global network of Palestinian analysts to produce critical policy analysis and collectively imagine a new policymaking paradigm for Palestine and Palestinians worldwide.

Al-Shabaka materials may be circulated with due attribution to Al-Shabaka: The Palestinian Policy Network. The opinion of individual members of Al-Shabaka's policy network do not necessarily reflect the views of the organization as a whole.